

Privacy Collection Statement and Consent

Issue date: November 2024

Collection of personal information

AMP Bank collects the personal information you provide in this form and from other parties, such as credit eligibility information from credit reporting bodies (CRB). We will use this information, and if you are an existing customer any other information we already hold about you, for the purpose of:

- assessing any application by you (or the borrower if you are a guarantor) for consumer or commercial credit, including credit limit changes and redraw requests, to assess suitability of proposed guarantors, to enable us to establish and manage the credit or facilitate the provision of credit and for future management of the consumer or commercial credit, including collection of overdue payments
- verifying information you provide in any application referred to above

We are required to collect this information under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) for ID verification and screening purposes.

If we are unable to collect your personal or credit information, we may be unable to process the application.

Disclosure

AMP Bank may share your personal information with credit reporting bodies, other lenders, loan mortgage insurers if applicable to the loan, any guarantors on your loan (if you are a borrower), any authorised agents, persons involved in securitisation arrangements with us, or if required or permitted by law.

Some external service providers we need to deal with can be located or host data outside Australia. A list of countries where these providers may be located can be obtained via our privacy policy. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that any data shared with service providers is shared securely to protect your information.

Where you provide us with the personal information of other individuals, it is your responsibility to:

- Inform the other individuals that you have provided their person information to us; and
- Provide them with a copy of this statement.

The information that we provide to credit reporting bodies (CRBs) may be used by a CRB to include in reports provided to credit providers to assist them to assess your credit worthiness. If you fail to meet payment obligations in relation to consumer credit or if you commit a serious credit infringement, we may be entitled to disclose this to the CRB. You have the right to request CRBs not to use your credit reporting information for the purposes of pre-screening of direct marketing by a credit provider. You have the right to request the CRB not to use or disclose credit reporting information about you, if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been, or are likely to be, a victim of fraud.
