Welcome back

Happy new year to you all, I hope you were able to get a well-deserved break and enjoyed creating memories with your friends and family.

My holiday highlight was having our family and friends around us over the festive period and a last minute road trip with my 17 year old son - a great way to get those Learner hours up and quality time together.

We have started the year strong with one of our leading relationship managers David Askew being featured in Mortgage Professional Australia for a BDM Spotlight article. David has been with us for over 25 years and his passion is mentoring others within the broker industry. David lives and breathes being the voice behind our brokers at AMP, he leads with integrity and role models the service and value that our brokers want. The team at AMP are excited for the year ahead, we have already hit the ground running with some fantastic strategic initiatives we will be implementing throughout the year to expand on the service and value we provide to you. I am looking forward to getting back out on the road this year and meeting with you all at events and meetings to hear about how AMP can enhance your experience with us and how we can work better together.
